

Dear musicians,

We are happy to invite you to the upcoming ECMA 2017 session from 25-29 October 2017, at the Royal Conservatoire in The Hague. The session will include group coaching, lectures, and public and informal performances.

Participants should arrive on Tuesday the 24th of October, and depart on Monday the 30th of October.

For those ensembles wishing to audition to become an "ECMA ensemble", please note the audition is scheduled on Monday, October 30th. A registration form for the audition is enclosed and should be returned to Monika Mistlbachner at ECMA (monika@ecma-music.com).

Conditions/Applications

Applicants are expected to participate in all activities organized during the course of the session. Interested ensembles should fill out the enclosed application form as completely as possible, including study repertoire as well as at least one work ready for public performance.

The deadline for applications is September 1st. Please apply by sending the registration form to Fabienne Kramer. The session is limited to 8 groups. We will confirm the list of selected groups as soon as possible.

Travel, accommodation and meals costs

A variety of accommodation possibilities at a range of prices are suggested in the attached document. Each participant is responsible for reserving his/her housing and covering meal costs in full. In addition, participants are expected to cover their travel to and from The Hague.

Organization
